Magic Days ...

Friends brought Magic shows to our three Kelowna library branches during March Spring Break. Magician Leif David, aka Ali K Zam created the "Book Worm" trick, specially for this event. It was surely magic – to hear the wild cheering and applause with every trick, as over 250 kids and countless "big kids" in the crowds were entertained. Each child received a gift bag of puzzles, pens, a tricks sheet and a momento card crediting FOL. They even had an opportunity to win a magic wand!

Snap Okanagan has pictures of awe and fun:

Thanks, Leif David – Leif says that his interest in magic began with a library book. He is a fine example of how libraries grow people. Friends thank him for his talent and commitment.

Event Highlights

Citizenship Ceremony Mission Library, April 23rd

Up to 80 guests attended this meaningful event where 30 new citizens took the oath in front of Citizenship judge George Gibault. US, Germany, UK & Trinidad were just a few of the countries these people emigrated from and now they call Canada, the Thompson-Okanagan & Kootenays home.

Dignitaries Mayor Sharon Shepherd, Pam Medland (ORL) and FOL President Michelle Ward specially encouraged them to visit and use their local libraries. Michelle also handed out much appreciated FOL book bags! FOL sponsored treats provided by Cupcasions. Their Canada-themed cupcakes were photographed almost as much as participants with the judge and flag. Mission librarian Annie Pope was a superb hostess & Friend Deb Loseth had fun mounting decorations.

Friends of Okanagan Libraries

Directors Ursula and Michelle represented Kelowna Friends at the Annual Gathering of the Friends of the Okanagan Libraries, April 25th.

Hosted by Salmon Arm & Sorrento Friends, it was a great Saturday spent swapping ideas & applauding achievements with Friends from our northern valley hosts and Vernon to Peachland, Naramata & Keremeos. Salmon Arm library undoubtedly impressed with its spaciousness and prime shopping mall locale. Linda Buker, a former Kelowna branch librarian, now in retirement an active Salmon Arm friend, was thrilled to greet us. ORL Executive Director, Lesley Dieno promoted that ORL now offers a collection of feature films on DVD for adults, young adults, and children, ranging from classics like Casablanca and Snow White to recent blockbusters. She reported on progress with building priorities at Summerland, Princeton, Vernon and Sorrento. Lesley was of course excited about the opening of the new Kelowna Headquarters building. We'd like to follow-up on her announcement, in welcoming Andrea Lindal, ORL's new Public Relations Manager.

Kelowna Friends have volunteered to host the 2010 gathering.

ORL New Headquarters

Opening Ceremony New Headquarters Building KLO Road, May 20th

ORL Board members and Library staff were gracious hosts in inviting FOL members, other librarians from across the valley and local dignitaries to an afternoon of celebration in their new building. An official ribbon cutting and refreshments were enjoyed by Friends in between touring the new building and learning more about ORL services, direct from the excited staff. They can be rightly proud of a spacious and innovative facility, that will serve ORL and the Okanagan's library needs well into the future. It should be noted that Kelowna Friends will be using the space allocated to FOL groups in the building, to store and sort Children's books.
